* The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2255, paragraph 6, provides in part that:

A one-year period of limitation shall apply to a motion under this section. The limitation period shall run from the latest of –

- (1) the date on which the judgment of conviction became final;
- (2) the date on which the impediment to making a motion created by governmental action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the movant was prevented from making such a motion by such governmental action;
- (3) the date on which the right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if that right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
- (4) the date on which the facts supporting the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

Therefore, movant asks that the Court grant the following relief:

ineffective assistance of counsel & correct guidelines or any other relief to which movant may be entitled.

Ground Five: Ineffective assistance of counsel

Damian A. Billak told don't write the judge no more or don't send to him through the court because the prosecutor would have the edge on what he was trying to do. When he only got time extension motion accepted. He never put in for anything to help my case he only wanted me to work with the government. He also told me if I don't take the plea the judge will give me life if I go to trial.

Ground Six: Ineffective assistance of counsel

Michael T. Callahan once he took my case he told me it was too late for him to do anything either take the plea or go to trial

Ground Seven: Ineffective assistance of counsel

My lawyer from Detroit, Michigan contacted Damian A. Billak trying to get a global resolution for all my cases together.
